Headteacher Updates

Friday 8th November 2024

Halloween Disco: We had great fun at our spooky Halloween disco when ghouls, witches, wizards and vampires gathered as well as the odd minion and quite a few Wednesday Adams! See twitter@hallamfieldsps

Reading Open Classroom: It was great to see so many parents join us for our reading session. We hope the session helped parents to understand the reading process and how to help children to read at home. You can find further information and resources on our website at: <https://www.hallamfields.org.uk/curriculum/phonics-and-early-reading/>

Parent Workshop Maths: Please join us on Thursday 21st of November at 5:30pm in the school hall to find out more about how we teach maths in school.

Headteacher Letters: Headteacher letters were awarded to two exceptional students at the end of last half term. Sierra Sarathchandra and Aariyan Mistry were commended for their outstanding attitude to learning! Well done to them both.

Attendance: The class with the highest attendance last week was Year 1 with a super 97.7%! They were awarded the attendance trophy in our awards assembly. Each half term, the class with the greatest number of weeks with the highest attendance will be rewarded with an afternoon of an activity of their choice.

Communication: We have a school calendar on our website to inform you of any upcoming events - <https://www.hallamfields.org.uk/news-events/events/>. We also use Twitter to share photos of the children's learning in school. EYFS will be sharing their news and learning via the Tapestry platform.

Diversity Calendar: We will be celebrating and talking about the diversity events below in the next few weeks.

Remembrance Day: We will be holding a special assembly with the children to observe a 2-minute silence on Tuesday 11th of November.

Anti-bullying Week -Odd Socks Day is taking place on Tuesday 12th November, with adults and children being encouraged to wear odd socks to celebrate what makes us all unique.

Interfaith Week-Remembrance Sunday was chosen as a start day to encourage people to remember together the contributions of all faiths and none, and to consider how best to create a just, peaceful, and harmonious world.

Best wishes
